The Opportunity

The University Pittsburgh is seeking an innovative, collaborative, and transformational leader to serve as the Executive Director of Student Health Services (SHS) on the Pittsburgh campus. The Executive Director will have the opportunity to provide leadership and vision in identifying and implementing strategies that build upon the strengths and success of SHS in providing health care to Pitt's diverse student population. The successful candidate must have these skills and talents: the ability to inspire, motivate, and support a multidisciplinary team of health care professionals, administrative staff, and trainees within a culturally humble and wellbeing-focused framework; the capacity to work closely and collegially across campus; and the desire and skills to advance justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion. It is an exciting time for Pitt as a new state-of-the-art Campus Recreation and Wellness Center is being built and will open in fall 2024. The new Center contributes to the University's commitment to the holistic wellbeing of students.

Student Health Services is part of the Wellness Unit within the Division of Student Affairs. The Wellness Unit is led by the Associate Dean of Students for Wellness and consists of Campus Recreation, University Counseling Center (UCC), and Care and Resource Support departments in addition to SHS. The Executive Director will work closely and collegially with their Wellness Unit colleagues to advance the goals of the Unit around student wellness and success. Accredited by the Accreditation Association of Ambulatory Health Care (AAAHC), the mission of SHS is to provide high-quality care, prevention, health education and pharmacy services to enhance student wellbeing. Consistent with the University and Division of Student Affairs' mission and values, members of the SHS team are committed to cultural humility, justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion. The Division of Student Affairs aims to provide students with a transformational collegiate experience by actively contributing to the education of the whole student and providing experiences and opportunities to prepare students for success in the global community. The Executive Director plays an important role in fulfilling this vision.

Position Summary

Under the leadership of the Associate Dean of Students for Wellness, the Executive Director has operational and managerial oversight of SHS, including 20 medical services and psychiatry staff; four pharmacy staff; three health education and promotion staff; and six administrative staff. The Executive Director identifies strategies for strengthening SHS services and programs to provide access to high-quality and timely health care that meets the needs of Pitt students. The Executive Director will work collaboratively with the Pitt CoVax Vaccination Center and the leaders of the four Regional Campus Health Centers to align service offerings between the campuses. The incumbent ensures SHS policies and procedures are aligned with AAAHC requirements, standards of practice, the University, and all applicable state and federal regulations.

The Executive Director leads a leadership team consisting of the SHS Medical Director, Assistant Medical Director, Clinic Manager and Pharmacy Manager. Together, they advance innovative wellbeing programs and medical services, including, but not limited to, peer education, dietitian services, collegiate recovery programs, immunizations, gender affirming and primary care. The Executive Director is frequently sought to provide expert consultation, guidance, leadership to university committees and to collaboratively engage with academic departments. The Executive Director will meet regularly with Regional Campus Health Centers to support student wellbeing. The Executive Director also serves as a key member of the Division of Student Affairs Leadership Team, leading division-wide projects, and engaging students, families, administrators, faculty, and staff to enhance wellbeing practices and policies.

Key Responsibilities

The Executive Director:

- ▶ Provides operational and managerial oversight of SHS to ensure programs and services meet the needs of students and are aligned with AAAHC accreditation standards

About the University of Pittsburgh and the City of Pittsburgh

Founded in 1787, the University of Pittsburgh is one of the largest and oldest institutions of higher education in Pennsylvania and is a member of the Association of American Universities. With an enrollment of more than 28,000 students on its main campus, Pitt is internationally respected as a center for learning and research that is consistently ranked by the Wall Street Journal/Times Higher Education College Rankings as the top public university in the Northeast. More than 13,600 faculty, research associates, and staff members are employed on the Pittsburgh campus, and another 800 work at the University's four regional campuses across Western Pennsylvania. Pitt offers generous benefits and values work-life balance.

The 132-acre main campus, in the vibrant and beautiful Oakland neighborhood, is co-located with the University's health sciences schools and multiple hospitals. Pitt has served as an integral partner and key player in driving the growth of the education and health services super sector in the Pittsburgh metropolitan region. The University ranks in the top five in funded projects from the National Institutes of Health and in the top two in funding from the National Institute of Mental Health.

The University views the city as an extension of its campus. Pittsburgh is in the midst of a remarkable transformation from an industrial capital to a center of education, research, and innovation. Pitt actively engages with the surrounding community through its Community Engagement Centers, community-driven partnerships, and volunteer service. Since March 2020, more than 600 faculty, staff, and students have joined community efforts serving Pittsburgh area residents during the COVID-19 pandemic. The University was recently awarded the Carnegie Foundation's Classification for Community Engagement in recognition of its institutional commitment to community engagement.

The city of Pittsburgh hosts a high concentration of diverse and influential nonprofits and, as an international center of emerging information technology, is home to companies such as Duolingo, one of Google's national offices, a Facebook Reality Lab, and multiple autonomous vehicle development efforts. The city also has a long history in banking and manufacturing and is becoming a leader in advanced manufacturing technologies and nanotechnology.

While still a work in progress, the city's reinvention since its days as a smoky steel town has received national acclaim. LinkedIn named Pittsburgh a top city to launch a career, and U.S. News & World Report lists it as a top place to retire. With an extensive network of urban parks, as well as world-class arts and cultural intuitions, in 2019 The Economist named Pittsburgh the third "most livable city" in the United States. Pittsburgh has all of the advantages of a large city in combination with the friendliness of the Midwest and the cultural sophistication of the East Coast.
