

Keeling Associates

Assessment and Accreditation Services

K&A partners with institutions to strengthen their frameworks and practices for assessment and accreditation. With decades of experience and a proven track record, we help institutions advance quality improvement processes, build capacity for learning and programmatic assessment, and achieve or renew accreditation.

Our expertise spans a wide range of assessment and accreditation needs, including:

- ▶ Developing and implementing strategies for institution-wide learning assessment and quality improvement
- ▶ Creating customized training workshops, programs, and resources on assessment to promote sustainable practices of assessment and quality improvement
- ▶ Evaluating and improving existing policies, practices, and systems to better align with evolving accreditation standards
- ▶ Supporting the preparation of critical documents, including institutional self-studies, with comprehensive review and detailed feedback and recommendations
- ▶ Assisting faculty, staff, and administrators in crafting actionable, data-informed approaches to meeting institutional and strategic goals
- ▶ Securing institutional readiness for accreditation visits through coaching, table top reviews, scenario planning, and stakeholder preparation

Our approach focuses on building institutional capacity, fostering a culture of quality improvement, and aligning assessment practices with your mission and goals. We pride ourselves on:

- ▶ Tailored Solutions: We customize our strategies and approach to meet the unique needs of each institution.
- ▶ Collaborative Methods: We partner with stakeholders at all levels to ensure alignment, engagement, and buy-in throughout the process.
- ▶ Proven Results: Our support has enabled institutions across the country to achieve accreditation while fostering a sustainable culture of excellence and continuous improvement.

We don't just help you enhance assessment practices and meet accreditation standards—we empower your institution to thrive beyond them.

Let us help you navigate the complexities of assessment and accreditation with confidence! Contact us at info@keelingassociates.com to learn more about how K&A can support your goals.

